

Software Solutions: DYNAMIC ENTRY

Dynamic entry is a software option which helps to improve the total cycle time. Due to the additional control of the mould-position the IML process can be started earlier, which decreases the overall cycle time.

