

Software Solutions: HMI UPDATE BASIC

This update enables the addition of user management where users can be authorized to access certain parameters to be able to perform their job. Different users can have different authorization levels.

There is also the addition of favorite lists, where short cuts can be created for quick access without the need to click through the complete menu structure

