

Vacuum monitoring on vacuum tank:

This retrofit replaces the analog gauge with a digital solution. The vacuum sensor value will be monitored by the software, allowing the system to start only at the set pressure. The start-up procedure is far more stable and safe and operating errors during start up can be avoided. Less scrap material and higher efficiency is the result.

